1 Peter 1 NASB - A Living Hope, and a Sure Salvation ...

The child of God, the one born into God s family, is described as having a living hope. While all men have some sort of hope, many have deceived themselves with a hope of their own making which is empty, false and dead. In stark contrast, the living hope of which Peter speaks rests upon the promises and power of God.

A Living Hope: A Study of 1 Peter 1:3-5 | Timberland Drive

God is truly our Father, who gives us new life through his living mercy. 1 Peter 1:3 Some Greek manuscripts and the Aramaic read “the hope of life.” 1 Peter 1:3 Peter states that the first result of our new birth is that we are brought into a living hope in the power of God, based on the resurrection of Christ. The God of resurrection gives us a powerful hope to excel in life.

1 Peter is a letter written to Christians who were confronted with the many problems of evil. They were living in the midst of pain, suffering, and constant trouble. Times were so tough, Peter reminds them that they are aliens, just passing through while here on earth.

Living in Hope (1 Peter) : The Hope that you have ...

In the first 9 verses of 1 Peter 1, the writer classically summarises that there is great cause for hope, and you can almost hear him shouting it out to anyone who was prepared to listen. The hope that St Peter talks about is a living hope – not a forlorn hope such as hoping that our football team wins this weekend!!

Praise to God for a Living Hope (1 Peter 1:1-9)

As Peter tells us in today's passage, we have a living hope (1 Peter 1:3). This living hope will never end and sustains us as we endure suffering. Ours is a living hope only because its foundation is the resurrection of Jesus from the dead (v. 3).

Peter speaks of this as a living hope, and living means it is something that comes to us every day; it is something that is available all the time. It is in that sense that I want to conclude this message this morning by showing you that Jesus Christ alive from the dead is the answer to all the broken dreams, the collapsed hopes of your life and mine, the pressures that we feel from day to day, the sense of our failure and the inability to perform as we would like to perform.

A Living Hope Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his great mercy begat us again unto a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.—1 Peter 1:3. There is something strange to our ears at the present day both in what these words say and in the joyful, fearless tone in which they say it.

1 Peter 1:3 A Living Hope - Bible Hub

One part of the answer is given here in verse 3; another part is given in verses 23–25. In verse 3 Peter says, "We are born anew to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead." That is, our hope arises from being born anew, and this new birth comes in some sense through Jesus' resurrection.
