Shushan Purim falls on Adar 15 and is the day on which Jews in Jerusalem celebrate Purim. The day is also universally observed by omitting the Tachanun prayer and having a more elaborate meal than on ordinary days. Purim is celebrated on Adar 14 because the Jews in unwalld cities fought their enemies on Adar 13 and rested the following day.

A family celebrates Chinese New Year by eating traditional foods, setting off firecrackers, hanging up lanterns, and watching lion and dragon dances.

Celebrations and Festivals is part of the very popular and established Planning for Learning series through...series which aims to make planning in the Early Years Foundation Stage practical, easy and cost-effective. There are six weeks of planning around six different themes. Each theme includes two activities linked to the areas of learning to develop children's skills across the Curriculum. The themes cover: - Celebrating diversity - Special food and clothes - Card, lights and decorations - Music festivals around the world.

The Practical Guidance in the Early Years Foundation Stage series will assist practitioners in the smooth and successful implementation of the Early Years Foundation Stage. Each book gives clear and detailed explanations of each aspect of Learning and Development and encourages readers to consider each area within its broadest context to expand and develop their own knowledge and good practice. Practical ideas and activities for all age groups are offered along with a wealth of expertise of how elements from the practice guidance can be implemented within all early years settings. The books include suggestions for the innovative use of everyday resources, popular books and stories. Using the clear and accessible material in this book practitioners will be guided through the process of helping children develop an understanding of themselves; to help them gain independence and to become excited and motivated about their learning. Practical examples and ideas are linked to the Practice Guidance to ensure that practitioners feel confident in their ability to support and develop children's emotional well-being and social skills as well as develop their own knowledge and understanding of this important aspect of the EYFS.

Outlines numerous activities and ideas to raise children with an awareness of an increasingly globalized world, from learning simple phrases in a variety of languages to appreciating the holiday traditions of other cultures.
